Why Reviews are so Important

ExornoGILT.com showcase and rate supplier profiles, tools and events about Globalization, Internationalization, Localization and Translation Industry.

Establishing credibility on today's market requires a good service infrastructure and a track record of demonstrated experience and competitive prices. Moreover, if customer experiences and reviews are linked to your member profile, it will support new customers purchase your services and tools.

ExornoGILT Own Reviews

ExornoGILT as Editor of member profiles and tools reviews does provide its own ratings and reviews based on completed profiles and interviews conducted with member or any customer experience we had with recent supply chain projects. Editor's reviews appear with golden icons.

Members Own Reviews and Employee Reviews

As reference point ExornoGILT allows members to rate their own profile or tools. Such process encourages suppliers to be ethical and fair about their own performance, tools and capabilities. If you are already a member at ExornoGILT.com, login and start your own review for your profile and/or your tools.

Note: All ratings are optional. Do only use the criteria that make sense for your own evaluation. Employees should only rate "Working as Employee or Freelancer". You do not require to sign in to rate a member profile. ExornoGILT moderators approve/reject profile reviews.

Customer Experience Reviews

The most important profile rating and reviews are provided by customers that contracted you and/or use your tools. Ask your current customers to submit reviews about your GILT services and/or tools; they will strengthen your credibility.

How to request a customer to rate your service or tools?

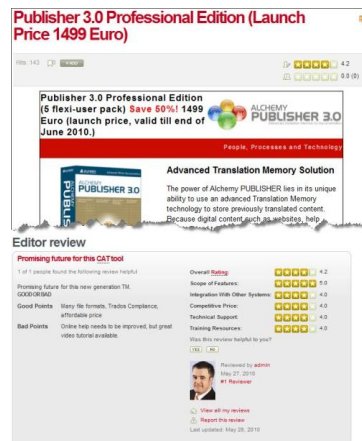

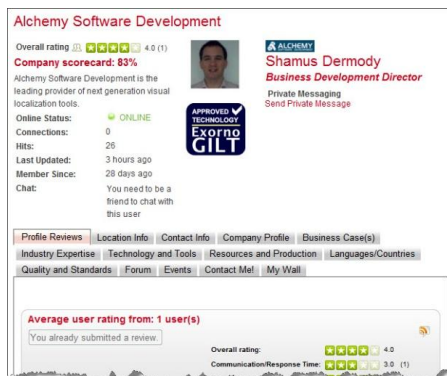

Various service and tools providers asked us for a simplified process to request customers to rate their profiles. Here is what you have to do:

- 1 Send the url of your profile to your customer.
<http://exornogilt.com/member-pass/mypublicprofile/userprofile/username>
(replace the username by your login username)
- 2 Request your customer to "Add New Review".
The "Add New Review" button is under your Profile Reviews Tab.
- 3 You customer hit the "Submit" Button.
(after completing good, bad points, comments)

Warning: Do not share your sign in details for reviews. Reviews are carried out without a need to log into ExornoGILT.com. A customer may not like to give you a blanket endorsement. A blanket endorsement is an overall approval. For instance, the customer checks the quality of one translation project/product in one expertise area, then may give total approval and backing. Ask your customer to provide a profile review based on a specific business case/expertise area and your customer may specify details in the comments section for that specific work experience. It is sometimes better to be specific and you have more chances to get your profile review done by the customer.

Technology Suppliers Reviews

Technology suppliers have a supplier profile and in addition they showcase software tools at our product store.
